Hello!! Your teen will be in one of my Bellevue Middle/High School's business classes this semester. Throughout the term, please feel free to contact me any time with questions, comments, concerns, feedback, etc. about the class your teen is in (how it operates and the curriculum that is being covered). I am always looking for ways to improve in order to make class interesting & relevant & fun for the students.

Please visit www.mrsweber.net. Every lesson plan for every class will be listed there. There is a page for each class that allows comments to be posted—please do this!! If you would like to reach me in a more confidential manner, there is a feedback form on the Info for Parents page (<http://mrsweber.net/info-for-parents/>) of my website—any comments relayed there will be private.

Bellevue High School has a Future Business Leaders of America chapter (FBLA). It costs $15 to join. We will be competing at the Iowa FBLA State Leadership Conference in Coralville in the spring. Students who place 1st or 2nd in their events qualify for the National FBLA Conference. FBLA is the largest student organization in the nation. It provides students with the opportunity to compete by taking written tests, skills tests, giving professional presentations, participating in interviews, and group problem solving on various business subjects. I am the adviser for this organization. Let me know if you have any questions. Any high school student can join! Here is the sign up form: <http://mrsweber.net/sign-up-form/>

Also, I am always looking for ways to keep topics and projects in my class relevant and current. If you would like to be a guest speaker or if you have a suggestion on speakers and/or topics, or if you have a project that you would like completed, please let me know!!

I am looking forward to a great school year!!

Sincerely,

Mrs. Tracy Weber
Business Teacher
